This house, holding the opinion that the constitutional [illegible] of parliament over the raising and employment of a military force by the crown is fully secured by provision of law and by the undoubted power of this house to grant or refuse supplies considers it unnecessary and inexpedient to [illegible] a resolution tending to weaken the hands of her majesty's government in the present state of foreign affairs

Hartington's Resolution Defeated

Independent Doctrine

[From the Seattle Dispatch]

It has been the custom of mere party politicians to denounce and rule out of the party those citizens who exercise a freeman's right to vote for candidates of different political views Party organization is only useful but necessary in directing the general policy of the government both state and general but becomes a public curse when it is made machinery used for personal ends in directing the division of the spoils of office

The Springfield Republican reprints Whittier's poem on slavery The Branded Hand as the just due of Jonathan Walker celebrated by it, who lately died in poverty in Michigan He was captured in Florida in 1844 imprisoned, pilloried and branded with a hot iron on the right hand with the letters S S signifying slave stealer

The Greenback Craze in Maine.

[Portland Letter to Cincinnati Commercial]

The growth of the Greenback party in Maine is as astonishing to its friends as to its enemies Nobody pretends to know what the future will bring forth and perhaps that is a very wise frame of mind for the politicians to be in since judging from the past the man who should attempt to forecast events yet to come to pass would be very likely to make a mess of it One thing is certain The Greenback party in this state has sprung up with a rapidity unprecedented and its adherents as well as the followers of the old standards find themselves wholly unable to make any prediction as to the future And why? A year ago last September the young party threw 583 votes for governor Two months later they gave Peter Cooper 663 for president Everybody supposed they had done their best (or worst) but in September 1877 their candidate for governor who was an Universalist minister known only in his own locality received 5 256 votes Then at the town elections this spring, it is claimed that over 3 000 votes were thrown for the Greenback candidates. In a number of towns the Republicans and Democrats united to defeat the intruders but in all such cases, one only being excepted the Greenbackers proved too strong for their opponents. Is it any wonder then that the politicians are confounded that the unattached voters who go with the majority and care for nothing but to be on the winning side have their eyes and ears open for indications of the course things are taking that the Greenbackers are sanguine the Democrats perplexed and the Republicans distressed?

CUSTER'S LAST

A FLOURISHING CITY NOW CROWNS THE SITE OF THAT LONELY BATTLEFIELD

If Sitting Bull and his warriors were to return to the great valley of the Yellowstone from which they were expelled only a short year ago says the New York Herald they would scarcely know their old hunting grounds Immigration has poured in from [illegible] section The wigwam of the Indian has given place to churches and schools and stores and newspaper offices At Tongue river where Gen Miles was encamped in 1876–7 there is a town with a population of nearly 1 000 inhabitants The battlefields of the heroic Custer are farms and cattle graze on the plains and hillsides where the saddest [illegible] tragedies were so recently enacted This generation is familiar with the rapid growth of towns and cities in what we love to call the great West but this settlement of the Yellowstone in so short a time is a marvel It was only yesterday as it were that we printed the details of the battle and massacre that plunged a whole country in mourning and to-day our correspondent tells us of the opening of banks the [illegible] and judges and police The Yellowstone valley is forever lost to the Indian The blood of Custer and his heroes was a terrible price to pay for it but after all they died in a noble cause Our western country is the great monument of the heroes of our army and their names will be forever cherished as the martyrs of our civilization

It is estimated that there will be an accession to the population of Kansas during the year, by immigration, of 250,000

THE BEDROCK GOES FOR MONEY

In the Democratic ranks in Baker and Union there is discontent which the Standard denominates treason The following letter from J M Shepherd of the Bedrock (Baker) Democrat is published It will be seen that Mr Shepherd demanded of the Democratic state central committee a large sum of money under threat of selling out to the Republicans and this conduct which it must be owned puts the Bedrock man in a bad light incenses his Democratic associates who say they have no use for newspapers or editors who are to be supported by blackmail and threats Mr Shepherd publishes we think the only paper in Oregon which has notoriously arrived at this distinction The following letter will convince the reader that the Bedrock Democrat is published on bedrock principles

BAKER CITY April 22, 1878

Hon John F Miller Chairman Democratic State Central Committee DEAR SIR—On my way and since my arrival here I have found that I was sold in Portland for a larger amount than I was aware of when I talked with you at Salem last Wednesday and I also know that the Bedrock Democrat from now until the election is worth as much as any other paper in the state and that it can do as much in procuring the success of the Democratic ticket as any other paper in the state and that it is as much feared by the Republicans as is any other paper and that we can take from $500 to $1 000 to keep still This being the case and since the Democrat and I were completely sold out at Portland I do not propose to let the Democrat take any part in the coming election unless we are amply paid for our work and we must know that we get the money promises will not do before we go to work. I have all the glory I can carry and promises you know are very easily broken by some men To make the thing certain an amount not less than $800 or $1 000 can be deposited with Ladd & Bush to the credit of J M Shepherd & Co and telegraph us by way of O S N Co's line to Umatilla that such is the fact, or have J W Virtue pay us that amount at Baker City and then we will go to work, and not until then So you will see this matter requires prompt action The vote of Eastern Oregon will tell the tale and it will take work to show a good return from her for our people are not satisfied We are urged by many good Democrats and other friends to take the silent money and let the ticket go to the d—l or let those who are on it who were placed there by bargain and sale secure their election by other combinations equally as honorable as those used to secure their nominations

Friend Miller I have stood the expenses of the state election in Eastern Oregon as long as I intend to and have worked for the success of other men as long without pay as I can afford to and now they must come to time or I am off

Yours respectfully J M SHEPHERD

THE PALOUSE COUNTRY

COLFAX W T May 1 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

For years the country bordering on the right bank of Snake river has been known as a good stock country Thousands of cattle have fattened upon its nutritious grasses Satisfied with stock raising the rancher—until within the past few years—has never investigated it further But lately grain raising has been tried and almost in every instance has proved successful beyond the hopes of the most sanguine the common average being 40 to 60 bushels of wheat to the acre For years past the hardy immigrants has left the grass hopper regions of Kansas Nebraska and other contiguous states and come out to this Eden of the Pacific coast

THE SOIL

Is of a black loamy kind with sufficient sand mixed to stimulate vegetation It is from 12 to 16 inches in depth and underlaid with a stratum of clay, which retains the moisture of winter during the dry summer months But unlike Eastern Oregon occasional showers fall during the whole year Almost every inch of it is tillable, except occasionally a rocky point or some flat where alkali predominates

THE CLIMATE

Is somewhat similar to that of Eastern Oregon—perhaps a little colder and more rain. The winters are not cold and severe but open The spring is properly the rainy season Stock winters upon the hills with no provision save the luxuriant bunch grass which nature has furnished in abundance upon every hillside The air is pure and invigorating and the best appetizer is a walk upon the hillsides before meals No miasma nor malaria lurks in stagnant pools for the country is of sufficient altitude to drain all its spare waters into which is a tortuous stream winding its snake like course through many hundreds of miles of territory It is navigable to Lewiston, over 400 miles from Portland It is a very rapid stream, at all stages of water and the O S N Co has shown considerable enterprise in navigating such a stream with its river palaces often encountering difficulties resulting in the partial or even total wrecks of their steamboats At the boneyard In Celilo lies the hulls of the Yakima Tenino and other boats whose ribs have been broken by hidden rocks in the treacherous channel of Snake river The John Days Umatilla and Palouse rapids are difficult points of navigation and the uninitiated stand with bated breath while the steamboat under the guidance of the experienced captain, seemingly feels her way through the treacherous current, the rocks jutting out every little distance in dangerous proximity to the craft but she plows her way through the boiling seething water like a thing of life Surely considerable praise is due the O S N Co for enterprise and courage in running their boats up such a savage stream,

SNAKE RIVER

ALMOTA

the principal landing for the Palouse country is about 45 miles below Lewiston There are at present two agricultural implement warehouses one hotel one saloon one store, and several residences It is destined to be a very lively point as it is the landing for a large farming country A stage ride over a nice undulating somewhat hilly country of 17 miles brings the passenger to

COLFAX,

The county seat of Whitman county and the center of trade of the Palouse country It is beautifully situated in the junction of the North and South Palouse and has a population of about 500 It has two hotels the principal of which the Baldwin House is a nice two story frame building and capable of accommodating a large number of guests. The table is served with all the dainties the market affords and one is surprised to meet with such comforts in a new country The gentlemanly clerk Mr Arthur is most accommodating in giving his guests all the information about the country possible The town has a very lively trade and new buildings are being erected on every corner It is but truth to say that in the next two years the town will at least double its present population A schoolhouse and church are—as they should be the most prominent buildings in town Nearly all the mechanical trades arts and professions are fully represented.

THE FUTURE

Of this country lies in the construction of the North Pacific railroad All look forward to the advent of the iron horse with longing anxiety There are thousands of acres of good land yet unclaimed, only waiting for the plow of the husbandman to break its virgin soil to yield abundantly Land waiting for an occupant to day will in a short time be worth thousands of dollars. SATURDAY MORNING MAY 25 1878

PURPOSES AND OBJECTS

For the independent ticket in this county there are assurances of strong support and good prospects of success Its objects commend themselves to the judgment of those who represent in large degree the independent and enterprising spirit of the county and city There are great interests in which, without disparaging other counties Multnomah may be said to be specially concerned and to have a larger stake than others and it is not only proper but necessary that these be considered There are two principal tickets One of these represents a system of partisan management with a view to office and patronage Its first allegiance is due to the system which created it After the political personal and partisan interests of its managers are taken care of it may perhaps in some sort consider the public interests but in no case till then The other ticket is put forth for no purpose of this kind It is not bound to a partisan system which is perpetuated for the profit of those who control it Multnomah should send members to the legislature whose first and highest purpose is something beyond a desire to take care of their own or others political and official fortunes But the power behind the Mitchell ticket the power to which it owes its origin and existence is a purpose of this description Adherence to this idea is the thing expected of it in case it should be elected Consideration of all else will be postponed to the promotion of the interests of those who make this system their study and trade, and expect to live by it There can be no question whether Multnomah would be better and more faithfully represented by the adherents of this system, or by the independent candidates. Between those who would go to the legislature under bonds to a scheme through which public affairs are to be controlled in such manner as to subserve the interests of the class who pursue this business as a profession, and those who having nothing of this kind in view, are free to act solely with reference to the public interests taking no thought of the political fortunes of any individual or class it should not be difficult to make a choice, nor is it Should the Mitchell representatives be elected they will justly conceive it to be their first and greatest duty, under the system to which they owe allegiance, to take care of his political and personal interests and those of his favored friends To this all other things will be postponed and subordinated for the system is one which tolerates no disobedience to its behests and no recreancy to the obligations it creates Should the independent representatives be elected they will be prepared to act with perfect freedom No 'machine' will control them No obedience to men who have staked their political hopes and personal fortunes upon the election of a senator can be exacted Multnomah county, not a group of politicians, will be represented in the legislature

Multnomah county even in greater degree than most other parts of the state, is now concerned with questions which rise far above all partisan considerations. We have now a beginning of things on which the future prosperity of this city and state largely depends. There is opportunity now which, if taken rightly and used in time, will lead on to a development which the great northwest has seen in its dreams, but which few of the present generation have expected to witness. The course which has been pursued at Washington in relation to matters of vital importance has not commended itself to the intelligent judgment of the people of Multnomah Few except his personal adherents and fellow partisans agree that Senator Mitchell in hampering the Northern Pacific and defeating its grant for this year at least, if not altogether, has done a proper thing. The almost universal conclusion, outside of the class whom a mere partisan feeling controls, is that a great opportunity has been thrown away. Whether it has been done with deliberate purpose or through infirmity of judgment, the consequence is the same Had it not been for the embarrassments needlessly created, railroad work would now be in progress near our doors. The situation is understood well by those who represent the great business interests of Portland, and whose future success depends on larger growth of the city's commercial importance. Hence the board of trade has spoken constantly in behalf of a policy which would aid the Northern Pacific, instead of burdening it with restrictive and oppressive conditions whose fatal effects could be well foreseen Throughout the country generally these things have been well understood Only because a class of persons have thought it necessary to commend Mr. Mitchell's action in the matter in order to sustain his political fortunes, has his course received any approval worth naming Had the election now approaching been out of view, few indeed would have thought of commending the action he has taken on this great and vital subject Such support as he receives is mainly on partisan grounds and for political reasons not because what he has done or proposed is approved

It is puerile to ask the people to take no account of these things in the election now at hand It is effort wasted to exhort them to vote "for the good of the party" which under present conditions means the personal interest of Mr Mitchell and his adherents Here is an object of immense importance to our state and to many states It is a thing of national magnitude The public are coolly asked to subordinate it to a scheme of personal politics, and to vote a so-called straight ticket, because political managers desire it For great numbers, and we believe for a majority this appeal will not suffice Therefore they support the independent ticket Our state should be able to command services which, if they do not secure at Washington all we desire nevertheless will not be found in opposition to measures calculated to promote the welfare and development of the country

THE INVESTIGATION

When Potter of New York offered the resolution to investigate the alleged frauds in Florida and Louisiana he excused himself by saying that he did it at the instance and solicitation of eminent political associates Of course all who heard the remark thought at once of Tilden At first there seems to have been an impression that the investigation was aimed merely at the Republican party not at Hayes title but later proceedings indicate a disinclination on the part of the Democrats to admit that this last is not their object All the Republican members except Gen Butler have voted against the Democrats on this question There are two motives it is suggested, for his action One is that he is seeking the Democratic nomination for the governorship in Massachusetts the other is that he proposes through this investigation to get at the bottom facts of the so-called Louisiana bargain in which Wayne McVeigh was the president's agent. Butler's correspondence with McVeigh a year ago attracted much attention because of the change he made that the Packard legislature was bought and turned over to the opposition government Exasperated by McVeigh's bitterly personal reply Butler has been making preparations with the aid of Pitkin ex marshal of Louisiana to demonstrate as far as he may be able the truth of his assertions Speaker Randall has given Butler a place on the committee of investigation and it is supposed he will now use the opportunity he has eagerly sought This subjects Hayes to attack from two opposite directions But the country is heartily tired of the whole business believes that dishonors are about easy in regard to the election of 1876 and would be glad if the tiresome and foolish business were dropped altogether

PORTLAND'S INTERESTS

It has been claimed that the course which Mitchell has pursued on the railroad question is in the interest of Portland and indispensable to the protection of the welfare of the city But how should Mitchell be so much wiser on this subject than the great body of those who own property in Portland By a great majority they are against the course he has taken But it is often asserted loudly by persons whose names do not appear on the tax rolls of the city or county that others who are taxpayers and whose interests all center here are enemies of the city and seek to pull it down This is alleged of men who are this very year making investments and creating improvements in the city worth thousands upon thousands of dollars and whose financial standing for the future depends wholly upon the growth prosperity and pre eminence of the city It may be claimed with certainty that those who represent the greater part of the real estate and substantial business of Portland are directly against Mr Mitchell in the course he has pursued in this matter The claim to the contrary is a fit one to be made as for the most part it is made through those who are hired for partisan reasons to do it, and who are utterly irresponsible for anything

Speaking of the Texas Pacific and the probabilities that congress will eventually aid its construction, a Washington correspondent suggests that it would be better and cheaper in the long run to buy the states of Chihuahua and Sonora from Mexico which he says can be had, and build across the acquired territory about 750 miles to Guaymas on the Gulf of California where there is an excellent harbor backed up by a good country He claims that Guaymas would make a better point for business than San Diego, and it would not be so near San Francisco as to excite the jealousy and antagonism of the metropolis The idea is not a bad one nor is it entirely new It was a possibility of the late scheme for the acquisition of those Mexican states and though it may not be consummated soon, it is a thing almost to be expected in due course of time

Election is very near at hand and Mitchell redoubles his efforts in the introduction of bills The latest is one for a further large appropriation for the locks at the Cascades It would be well enough were it not obviously introduced to attract attention just now when an election is pending in which he feels greater interest than in the construction of the locks This appropriation of three hundred thousand never could be asked till right now, because the senator, during his six years has had no time to do it, and had it been delayed beyond next week, there would have been no occasion for it at all Considering the importance of the present juncture, three millions should have been asked for at least

Germany declines to join in the proposed international silver conference, though Greece and Switzerland have acceded It is not to be expected that England or any other great commercial nation will do otherwise than has Germany but then it is intimated that Turkey may send a commissioner, and it is believed besides that Mr Evarts, who has been soliciting all the powers has well founded hopes that Montenegro will come in at the last moment

The Philadelphia Press has compiled and published a comparative statement of prices from 1860 to the present The list contains all the main staples which enter into food, clothing and the leading industries of the country, and the result shows that the cost of living to day has not only reached the hard pan rates before the war but is in fact from 20 to 30 per cent cheaper than in 1860

The Russo-Turkish war was declared on April 24, 1877 and peace was signed March 3, 1878, 313 days afterward The cost per day is estimated by a Russian authority at about $1,750 000

It was a Little Lively but not Serious

[From the Salem Statesman]

Thursday, Mr Hackleman employed in the office of the state treasurer called on Gen Nesmith at or near the Chemeketa Hotel and entered a forcible protest against further exposures of Democratic frauds by the said Gen Nesmith The assistant treasurer is a muscular individual, but the duke of the Rickreal principality perpendicularized himself and assumed a position which looked as if all the naked savages of the Fiji Islands could not scare him remarking in a little speech that he expected to live long enough to fertilize the graves of such scoundrels as he was Thereupon the party of the second part asked 'What of it?' and he answered Nothing only one fertilizer spread on top of another' No serious troubles arose and no new business for courts.

Senator Cameron's oldest daughter will have the charge of her five brothers and sisters at Harrisburg and the bride will have sole possession of the senator's house in Washington

The best speculation the market affords
To any enlightened lover of self
Is to buy the Bedrock at the price it is worth
And sell it at that which it puts on itself

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

CELEBRATION OF THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE BIRTHDAY OF HER MAJESTY VICTORIA QUEEN OF GREAT BRITAIN AND EMPRESS OF THE INDIES

The queen s birthday is one of the great festal days with all British subjects and no matter how far from the land of their birth Englishmen may be whenever the [illegible]th of May comes round their hearts turn with love and admiration to home and to her in whose hands for years the reins of government have been held with such distinguished honour to herself and to her people and Queen Victoria s health is drank with true heartedness in all parts of the world

The British subjects of Portland are not behind their brethren in any other part of the world in their regard for the queen and celebrated it last evening by a banquet, toasts and speeches

THE BANQUET

In which the cloths were spread at half past [illegible] o clock was prepared by that well known [illegible] to healthy palates [illegible] and was all that could be wished by the most fastidious epicure The members of the society and invited guests did ample justice to the viands and having disposed of them with the greatest relish the best part of the programme began and the feast of reason and flow of soul lasted for three or four hours in which

TOASTS AND SPEECHES

Were proposed and made with an enthusiasm that we have seldom witnessed The first toast always with an Englishman, The Queen was proposed in a neat way by the president of the society Mr Francis and was drank heartily by the assembly who joined in singing God Save the Queen Following this Mr Francis proposed The President of the United States which was followed by singing the Star Spangled Banner Mr Francis also proposed The Prince and Princess of Wales and the rest of the royal family followed also by singing God Bless the Prince of Wales

His Excellency Gov Chadwick proposed the British Empire to which Rev John Rosenberg responded eloquently and appropriately

The United States proposed by Mr Creighton and responded to by Mr Charles Hodge was drank heartily and cheered in the same manner

Mr John Cran whom we all know as a ready wit and a jolly good fellow proposed the state of Oregon the youngest and best of the states of the union and Gov Chadwick responded to it in an eloquent and well set speech which was heartily cheered and constituted one of the features of the evening s exercises

Mr George M Bowen gave and Mayor Newbury answered to the toast of the mayor and corporation of the city of Portland

Dr Chance proposed the bench and bar and Mr Fletcher of Vancouver responded in happy style Mr Laidlaw presented the toast Our Shipping Interests, and Capt Penny of the bark Dovenby made a few pleasant remarks Sister Benevolent Societies proposed by Dr Chance and responded to by Mr McBeth drew out some remarks indicative of the good feeling existing between those engaged in good works.

THE BRITISH BENEVOLENT SOCIETY

Under whose auspices the celebration was given was a toast proposed by Mr A Roberts and drank with the greatest gusto In response Mr Jas Laidlaw ex president gave a brief history of the society and its operations which showed it to be in a very flourishing condition and doing a good work Our honored guest the governor of Oregon was happily proposed and feelingly and fitly answered by his excellency

The Press was proposed by Mr Webb and responded to by S A Moreland in a few remarks

In conclusion Rev John Rosenburg proposed in the wittiest and liveliest [illegible] of the occasion 'The Ladies and with [illegible] gallantry the crowd arose and drank t[illegible]th of all the ladies the queen at the head, amid cheers and exclamations of 'God bless her God bless them all The response was equally felicitous and was heartily cheered

The health of the president vice president and members of the executive committee of the society was drank with hearty good will and followed by singing Oh They are Jolly Good Fellows and was responded to by Mr Francis president of the society

Various pleasant things were said and done during the evening of which our limited time and space precludes mention Fine instrumental music was furnished at intervals by Professors Bray and Roos and everything else was arranged for the enjoyment of those present by the honorary committee Messrs George Good Robert Irving and George A Webb and we are sure her majesty ought to be proud to have such subjects for they performed their duties in the most royal manner and the occasion will long be remembered as one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind ever given in Portland

CAPT WILKINSON S INTERVIEW WITH MOSES AND SMOHOLLA NEAR PRIEST S RAPIDS

It will be remembered that nearly two weeks ago word was sent from Fort Colville by messenger to Walla Walla and telegraphed to Gen Howard that several hundred Indians under Chief Moses near Priest s Rapids were preparing for war many already under arms An Indian chief from Okanagan had been solicited to join the hostiles He had sent spies who reported that Moses was waiting for General Howard and troops to approach and then the Indians would begin the fight For a few days reports and rumors from white men in the vicinity confirmed these stories

Gen Howard immediately sent his aide Capt Wilkinson to Fort Simcoe to concert with Agent Wilbur to send an Indian delegation from the Simcoe agency and effect if possible an interview between Agent Wilbur and Moses The captain was freighted with important messages first that the government had no design of making war upon Moses and his people unless they broke the peace second that Gen Howard would meet Moses by and by as he had promised before going to Washington—an interview which Moses [illegible] with the hope of arranging all matters satisfactorily [illegible]

Agent Wilbur not being very well asked Capt Wilkinson to go to Simcoe [illegible] valley some 80 miles from Simcoe and [illegible] miles from Priests Rapids The friendly Indian delegation was sent with Capt Wilkinson having Abraham Lincoln as an interpreter Fortunately two of Moses Indians appeared at Simcoe These were sent ahead to go to Moses and ask him to come [illegible] to Kittitas last Monday A meeting was effected there as planned Moses Smohallia and several other Indians being present Gen Howard s message gave Moses great satisfaction He had learned from white men and Indians that another chief (Gen) had been sent here in place of Gen Howard (doubtless referring to Gen McDowell commanding the department during Gen Howard s two months absence in Washington) which news gave him great uneasiness coupled with the idea that soldiers were coming to force him to obey the orders of Col Watkins the Indian inspector who last fall directed him and his people to go down to the Yakima reservation at once

Capt Wilkinson satisfied him that there were no military orders now to force him away from the grounds where he had been permitted to put in his crops Next when the captain came to arrange for an interview with Gen Howard Moses objected for various reasons to come down the river His people are afraid of some trap but agreed readily to go to the Spokane Falls where Gen Howard will be about the 26th of June Moses main object probably is to extend his influence among the northern tribes to become their chief, hoping to be sustained by Gen Howard and the troops Moses denounces Smohallia s dreaming drumming and spiritism in unmeasured terms and promises to take the nonsense out of him if Smohallia chooses to remain with him whither Smohallia [illegible] in danger

A dispatch from the Indian bureau to Agent Wilbur requires Moses and his people to be brought on the Yakima reservation and declares they can have no new reservation at Priests Rapids but Agent Wilbur is in no case to disturb the peace These instructions amount to this Do absolutely nothing for an attempt to urge these Indians toward the Yakima reserve will surely inaugurate serious trouble that will end in positive war as a like attempt has done in every instance heretofore tried These Indians will certainly be satisfied with the good land and the homestead plan if extended to them in a friendly and intelligent manner Such is in substance the state of things between the Upper Columbia river Indians as revealed by Capt Wilkinson s and Agent Wilbur s reports Gen Howard commends the captain for the energy and fearlessness that he displayed He traveled up and back from The Dalles about 300 miles and accomplished the purpose of his visit Capt Wilkinson returned to the city last evening

The Rush to the Upper Country

[From the Walla Walla Watchman

The immigration to this country at the present time is immense They are coming by stage and rail by water and if possible they would come by balloon People who sit around bar rooms and those who hang around street corners express astonishment, and wonder where all this vast army is going, and where they will find homes There are yet hundreds and hundreds of miles of as good land as ever was blessed by the generosity of the Creator yet unsettled—land rich in all the attributes necessary to make it as productive as the best agricultural lands on the face of the globe Sitting around town we are apt to measure the extent of the country by what we see around us From here to the British line a distance covering several hundred miles every inch of soil is susceptible of cultivation and is capable of supporting a dense population The soil of all this section is similar to that of the Island of Sicily that for years was the granary of the Roman empire supporting and furnishing food for millions Why the capabilities and resources of this vast empire are comparatively unknown Here is destined to be the seat of future empire and the child is born that will see this valley teeming with a busy active and energetic population

Seventy-Three to Sixty-Nine

[From the Vancouver Independent]

Gently confiding in each other there came to Vancouver last Friday a youth of 73 winters and a sprightly lady of 69 summers who after many difficulties succeeded in launching their barque upon the matrimonial sea which in Oregon would have been a stormy sea on account of a little breeze raised by the children of the lady most concerned The groom crossed the plains in 1847 and saw Vancouver when it was not yet out of the brush and it was one of the acquaintances made here in those days that enabled him to go to the county auditor and prove that he was over 21 years of age—the law you know, will not take cognizance of appearances however apparent of truth—and Mr Ryan swore that he was over 21 and at the solemn twilight hour of a dripping evening they were made one On Saturday they departed to enjoy the honeymoon upon his respectable estate in Oregon and as they both have a muchness of this world s goods they can be a comfort to one another in their declining years Truth gets away with story telling in this neck of woods

LOVE UNSTRUNG

Glide on sweet purling stream
And mingle with the sea
Adown each glen by water gleam
In merry dance and free.
Sing on sweet bird the blue expanse
Of heaven's vault is thine
O lap thy soul into a trance
Pour forth thy song divine
But I must not give forth my strain
I love a maid but love in vain

The blithesome bird that haunts the vale
Will bear but half her grief
She floats her sorrow on the gale
And gives her soul relief
The meanest floweret on the field
Basks in the noonday sun
And every creature hath a rest
When daily toil is done
I to myself make bootless moan
And bear my burden all alone

A grief that links two hearts in bliss
Is but a hidden treasure
What's but a thorn when singly borne
When shared becomes a pleasure
The finer feelings of the soul
Are known by mutual union
Each spirit hath its counterpart
With whom to hold communion
But she is gone and leaves with me
The rest of the unsleeping sea

ANSWER TO WM MILLER

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I noticed a letter in the Mercury in regard to my connection with an action against Wm Miller in favor of Mrs Matheny for land which he claims he bought of her which reflects upon my character as an attorney I pronounce the whole letter a base unqualified, unmitigated falsehood and the author of it a liar and vilifier

I never saw Mrs. Matheny, or wrote to her or any one else, about the land I never have up to the present time examined the title or records in reference to Miller's land I never made any bargain with her or any one else with reference to the suit. About 1871 I commenced to practice law for the first time and for that purpose formed a law partnership with Col Geo B Curry and when I came into his office at Lafayette he had the case for Mrs Matheny, and had had it for some time previous. I know nothing about the case and but precious little about any other case that had any law questions in it, as I had only just commenced practising I had never seen any of the parties and did not know them Col. Curry stated that she (Mrs Matheny) told him that Miller had cheated her out of the land, and wanted suit brought to recover it back. The action was brought and Miller compromised the case and paid her for the land To prove what I have stated above, I will refer to the following affidavit

State of Oregon County of Yamhill—ss.

I, Samuel Gaines being duly sworn, depose and say that I was personally acquainted with Mrs. Matheny That I know that she came to Geo B Curry expecting to get him to take her case against Mr. Miller before Mr. Hurley entered into partnership with him and that she claimed that she did not get just compensation for the place from Miller Col Curry advised her to settle the matter with Miller and not go to law, but she persisted in having a suit brought and consequently an action was commenced From what I know about the case I am satisfied that no blame can be attached to Hurley

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of May 1878 P K MURPHY Notary Public.

From what I have heard from parties who claim to know I am of the opinion that poor old Mrs. Matheny was cheated out of this land by this man Miller A man that will turn his own child out of doors will do a most anything

Mr Gaines is a Democrat and makes this affidavit that justice may prevail. H. HURLEY

New York Freights and Markets.

NEW YORK, May 24—Freight market remains rather quiet and it is probable that there will be but one more departure from here this month Rates are unchanged, but as ship owners are less disposed to put on their vessels it is possible that ere long there may be an advance in rates. What the effect of this may be remains to be seen, but it is more than likely it will result in stopping shipments, as many of the goods now going forward are only doing so because of less rates and not because of any demand The only new charter to note is the ship Sachem, thirteen hundred and eighty one tons, in the Boston line. There has been a reaction in railroad freights and shipments are again large

Markets remain quiet: flour very dull and easier Wheat limited demand, one half lower Pork better demand, 25c higher, Rio coffee, quiet and firmer. Refined sugars dull and steady Teas dull and unsettled. Hides dull and steady Leather quiet. Petroleum and turpentine unchanged Wool dull transactions chiefly spring California sales of which embrace 150 000 pounds at 12@26c 50,000 pounds a. 15@17c.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Private Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

DR. BRENAN has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual This accounts in part for his great professional success

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.

DR BRENAN will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable

THE DOCTOR has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Settlement of Losses by the Riots.

PHILADELPHIA May 25—The result of a test case foreshadowed that Allegheny county must pay for all goods destroyed in the Pittsburg labor riots and suit was brought to recover the value of a consignment of whisky destroyed while en route from Cincinnati for Philadelphia The defense was that the act making the county liable was intended to apply to citizens of that county only, that the disturbance was more than a mob and was an insurrection and that if the officers of the railroad companies were not at fault in having the property in Pittsburg, the owners could not recover The judge ruled out testimony to prove these points, and the verdict was for the full amount demanded by plaintiffs

Gold Mine in New York City.

NEW YORK, May 25—Two old California miners are placing a sluice in the cellar ruins of the burnt American Watch Co.'s building Bond street, to wash over the ashes and debris and recover the precious metals remaining of the large stock of jewelry destroyed by fire.

Looking for War Vessels.

PHILADELPHIA May 25—Six accredited agents of the Russian government reached this city from New York late last night. They visited Cramp's ship yard and will visit Roach's ship yard at Chester to morrow.

Non-Paying Hotel.

NEW YORK, May 25—The Evening Post says it has been definitely decided to close Stewart's hotel for women, it not having paid anything like expenses since opening. It will be transferred into a general hotel for all classes without distinction of sex It is said the daily expenses are $900 and there are not two dozen boarders.

The Storm—More Lives Lost.

CHICAGO, May 25—Further reports from the storm center of Thursday night shows greater disaster than was known of even last night. The death roll is now increased to 25 in the vicinity of Madison alone and at Mineral Point nine persons were killed.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

PITTSBURG, May 25—At this morning's session of the Presbyterian general assembly, Rev Dr. Matthews, of New York, presented a report of the commissioners to the Edinburgh council. The council was attended by 333 representatives from 49 churches, containing about 20,000 separate congregations, all of whom agree on holding the Presbyterian policy and the Calvinistic system of doctrine. The finance committee report a balance on hand at the end of this year of $1,545; additions to permanent fund, $18,375 92, The account of the treasurer of the general assembly shows a balance on hand of $1,675 29. The committee on reduced representation reported, and Dr. Patterson submitted the recommendations presented a few days since.

Hanged.

SHELBY, N. C., May 25.—Henry Roberts (colored) was publicly hanged here yesterday afternoon for a murder committed last fall. He affirmed his innocence and died in hopes of salvation, forgiving his enemies who had sworn falsely against him

PENSACOLA, Fla., May 25.—Simon Johnson, alias John Simons, a negro, for a dastardly outrage on a young child who died soon after, was hanged here yesterday. He denied the crime and supplicated for mercy.

Struck by Lightning.

PROVIDENCE, R. I, May 26—This afternoon seven men were preparing to have a fish fry on the island in Waterman reservoir, Smithfield, when a shower came up and lightning struck the party. Wm. Calvin, of Scituate, and Daniel Knowlton, of Greenville, standing back to back under a tree, were killed. Eugene Knowlton and Jeremiah Angel were injured, their boots being stripped off and their feet burned and limbs partially paralyzed The others were stunned, but not seriously.

Turners' Convention.

CLEVELAND, May 25.—The national convention of Turners began its sessions to-day, 60 delegates present.

WASHINGTON CITY.

A Bill to Prevent Malfeasance in Land Offices.

WASHINGTON, May 25—The senate to-day passed without amendment, the house bill requiring that all notices of contest under homestead pre-emption and tree culture laws, shall hereafter be printed in some newspaper printed in the county where the land in contest lies, and if no newspaper be printed in such county, then in a newspaper printed nearest to such land. The purpose of this bill which was originally introduced by Wigginton is to stop a practice in which land officers are occasionally detected of conniving with land sharks by publishing notices of contest in remote newspapers, which the settlers marked out for spoliation are not likely ever to see.

Phillips' Financial Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 25—Representative Phillips will, at the first opportunity, introduce in the house and ask immediate action on a bill as a substitute for the pending bill declaring the contract between the secretary of the treasury and the syndicate for the sale of 4½ per cent bonds of the United States to be contrary to law The full text of the measure is as follows

Be it enacted, etc., that all sales of bonds of the United States, except for the purpose of refunding the debt as now provided for by law, is hereby prohibited, and for purposes of refunding the debt at a lower rate of interest the public subscription books shall be kept open at the treasury of the United States, and the sub-treasuries thereof, and should it be necessary for the secretary of the treasury to effect any sale or sales of bonds authorized to be sold by law, he shall only do so on sale or contract made to the lowest bidder or bidders, due notice being given by publication.

Postal Changes.

WASHINGTON, May 27—Postoffices established—Freedom, Coos county, Oregon, Yelverton M Lowe, P M, Shell Rock, Wasco county, Oregon, John Cotes, P. M.

Probable Fate of the Army Bill.

The army bill may possibly come up again in the house to morrow but it is more likely to lie over until Tuesday The pending amendment for transfer of the Indian bureau to the war department is expected to cause prolongation of the debate in committee of the whole until Wednesday. The chances are against its adoption, Republicans being inclined to oppose it in a body and at least two prominent Democrats, Cox of New York and Harris of Virginia, having already indicated a determination to combat it by all the means in their power The bill will be passed by the house substantially as amended in committee of the whole, except that the two sections concerning the adjutant general and inspector general's departments, which were stricken out when the Republicans had temporarily a majority will be restored There is no prospect, however of a reversal of the vote by which the committee of the whole refused to reduce the total force of the army below 25 000 men Wigginton was one of the ten Democrats who united with Republicans in keeping the force at this figure, and Luttrell, though detained from the house by illness has made his vote effectual on the same side by means of a pair It is not certain, however, that any Democrats will take sides with the Republicans in voting against reductions of the number and pay of officers. It should be borne in mind nevertheless that a very large majority of the senate, including the most prominent Democratic senators are firmly opposed to making any change in the present organization except upon a report on the subject by some competent board of inquiry and will undoubtedly amend the house bill by providing for the reference of all such questions to the board which the house itself has illogically proposed to entrust with only a portion of the subject The final result of the coming contest between the house and senate over the bill cannot as yet be confidently predicted.
